The Circuit System of Theatrical Management, and the Injury it Inflicts on Memphis and Upon the Poor Players-Our Theater Closed Half the Season So Far, and Occupied by Very Inferior Companies.

Mr. Joseph Brooks, manager of the "Shadow of Death" theatrical circuit, has at length answered the article in the APPEAL of the 18th, concerning the Memphis Theater and the great and good circuit. He yester-day gave the Acolomche an interview, and it sems that he thinks the APPRAL's article is ill-natured, grossly unjust and in some par-ticulars absolutely false. It is, of course, the First Presbyterian Church at 11 o'clock inful to the APPEAL to come under the ban to-day. thee, Joseph, almost with a young girl's sweet fancy; but now, sias! all is bitterness and rexistion of spirit. His bosom rankles at the "injustice" of the article, and he demurs to mises and brag. Josie gives a list of the Of the Barbers' Union Social Club will sh enters be controls, which are as follows: given at Macnorchor Hall this evening. as in Michigan, two in Indianapolis, five Nashville, Leubrie's here, two in Louisville, and he is identified with all the theaters in instant, from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m., at the resi-

THE GERMANN,

And These Whom They Expect to Vote for at the Next Election.

Last night the Germans held a mass-meet g to decide who they should vote for at the ning election for member of the Police and Fire Commissioners. They did not care to choose more than one man. Quite a large umber of Germans were present, and mani-sted great interest in the questions presented for discussion. For member of the Fire and Police Commissioners John Schoier, Joe Walter and William Benjes were inuted, Scheibler receiving 52 votes, Walr 41 and Benjes 7, and blank 9. Considerable discussion grose as to whether the nine blank votes should be counted, and it was finally decided against them, Benjes was dropped, and those present were asked to arrange themselves on each side of the room for Scheibler or Watter, and the former received about two-thirds of the votes For the position of Superintendent of Public Works Herman Gronauer, Joe Wal-irozaner receiving 70 votes, Walter 20 and Fahlen 8. The meeting then adjourned.
